the birth of our beloved flag.

In these days when the Stars and Stripes are flying from nearly all school houses, churches and many other buildings in our land, some might say that we need no reminder of flag day. But in these days the sight of Old Glory in spires us as never before, when we think that this flag is floating over our boys in France as well as in our own country, or for the homes from which they have gone, but we can show our interest in it all by displaying our flags on June 14, and may God give us all his bleasings and help us to unite the cross and the flag and be faithful to our country.
